

Terms and Conditions of appointment of Part-time Official Directors (Government Nominee Directors)

HAL has one government nominee director representing Government of India, who is appointed by the President of India through Ministry of Defence, Government of India until further orders. No remuneration is paid to the Government Nominee Director.